

Chowgule Industries manages its systems across multiple locations, and combats malware attacks with Seqrite Endpoint Security(EPS)

“We would definitely recommend Seqrite as a preferred IT security solution for enterprise security needs. It is very easy to use and deploy and allows us to seamlessly manage our devices spread across multiple locations in the country.

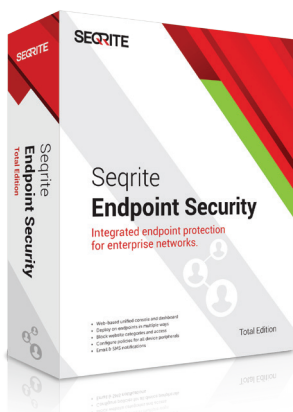

-Chowgule Industries Pvt. Ltd.

Chowgule Industries Pvt. Ltd. (CIPL) was established in 1963 as a trading arm of 94-year old Goa-based Chowgule Group of Companies. Chowgule Group is a diverse conglomerate having an annual turnover exceeding INR 1900 crore. Its automobile business unit CIPL is into dealership and marketing of brands like Maruti Suzuki, Swaraj Mazda, Reliance and Thermax Chemicals.

Securing

600+

Endpoints with
Seqrite EPS

Challenges

- Regular virus and other malware attacks
- Lack of a centralized point of view over all network systems and their security status
- Inadequate support mechanism on IT related security issues across endpoints

Solutions

- Browsing Protection, Spam Protection, and Vulnerability Scan protects all network systems
- Centralized dashboard to view and regulate network health and security updates
- Easy deployment and 365/24/7 technical support make IT management easy

Results

- Proactive protection against malware, suspicious files and incidents
- Secured centralized operations increased efficiency and improved customer experience
- A well-monitored network and fast resolution to security challenges

With Seqrite Endpoint Security (EPS), Chowgule Industries benefits from a wide range of security functionalities at a highly competitive price. The solution provides brilliant endpoint protection and proactively identifies and deals with viruses and other malware infections. Detailed reports and audit provide complete insight into the IT network's operations and pain points.

Seqrite's round the clock customer support ensures that there is minimal network downtime. The IT team smoothly monitors network systems and saves time for updates with centralized and simplified management of Seqrite Endpoint Security (EPS) solution.